Through our latest integration with mobile F&B partner, Truffle, you can take advantage of all the quick and full-service dining features you already use in Advantage with the new option for mobile ordering, too. Best of all, these exciting features are fully integrated into Advantage for sales, kitchen management, and inventory.

Increase food and beverage sales, save labor, and offer guests the self-service ordering options they want with CenterEdge's newest feature set, Mobile Food & Beverage.

Self-Service Food Ordering in the Palm of Your Hand

Give your guests the freedom to order food from anywhere! Simply provide menu QR codes or direct guests to your online menu and allow them to order food and beverage quickly and easily. When orders are ready, guests receive automated text messages for pickup or receive orders dropped by wait staff or runners throughout your facility (or anywhere else!). It's that simple.

Maintain a Single Source of Truth for Your Food & Beverage Operation

Get a complete picture of your entire food and beverage operation with consolidated sales reporting, whether your guests order onsite or online, with a team member, or by mobile device. All food and beverage sales and inventory post to Advantage reports like any other offering seamlessly.

Save Time and Hassle with Unified Inventory & Kitchen Management

Customizable mobile menus allow you complete control of your offerings online. Present your entire menu or just a few offerings, it's completely up to you. And what's more, you never have to worry about removing 86'd items from customizable mobile menus or accidentally running out because everything is managed through Advantage, your single source of truth for your entire food and beverage operation.

Reduce Labor and Waste with Contactless Order Pickup

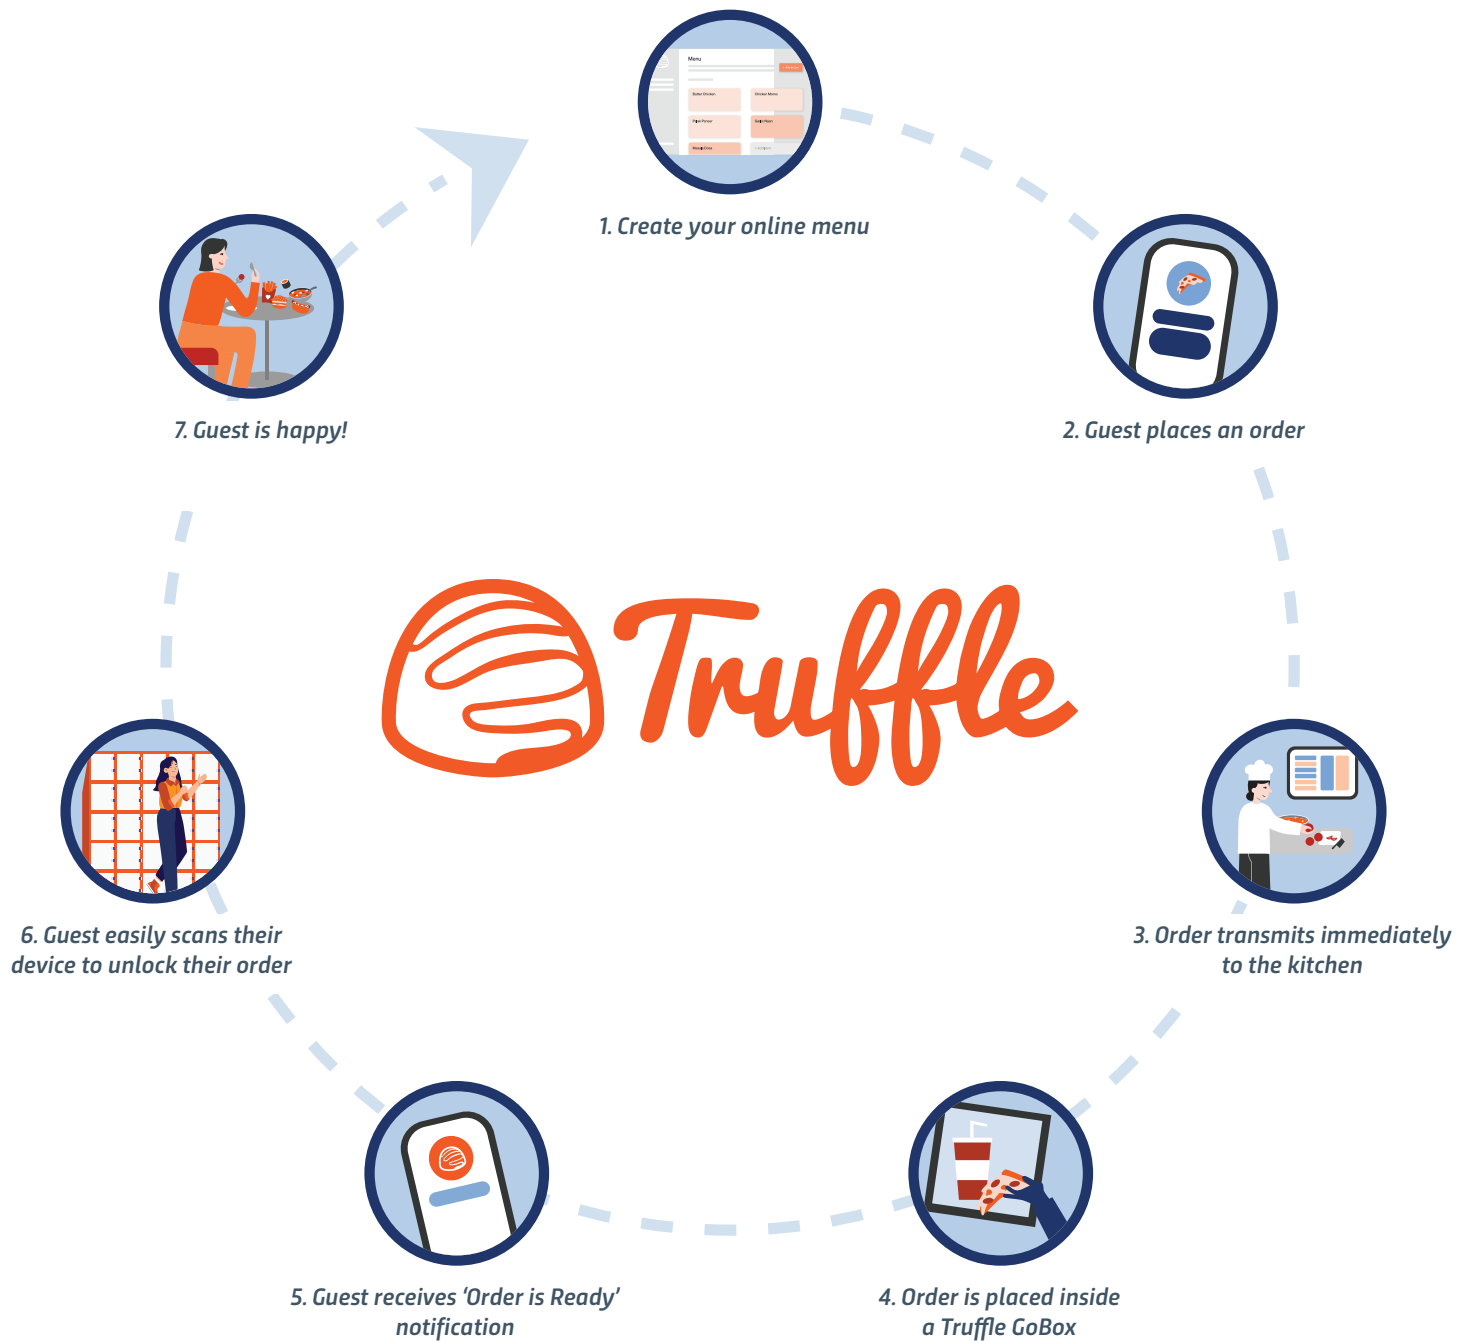

Truffle GoBoxes are easy-to-use lockers to store food and beverage orders for secure self-service pickup. Guests love the simple, self-serve method of scanning or entering their unique password to retrieve orders once ready, while staff appreciate the streamlined approach to fulfilling orders and getting back to business, rather than calling out names or trying to locate guests in your facility.
